

SECURCIT: Gender and Security

September 18-19, Amsterdam

“Mercenary Masculinities Imagine Security: Identity Work as Material Practice”

Public Lecture by Dr. Paul Higate (University of Bristol)

Drawing on the rapid rise of Private and Military Security Companies (PMSC) in recent years, this lecture focuses on the masculinity-security nexus in the case of private security contractors.

Thursday, September 18, 15:00-17:00hrs

P.C. Hoofthuis 1.04, Spuistraat 134

Admission: free, followed by drinks

“Gender, Embodiment and Security”

PhD Masterclass with Dr. Paul Higate (University of Bristol)

This master class is intended for PhD candidates who will have the opportunity to engage in a discussion with Dr. Paul Higate. Participants will be expected to read selected readings beforehand and elaborate on how their research relates to this work.

Friday, September 19, 11.00-13.00hrs

University Library, Singel 425, CO.01 (Vondelzaal)

Registration required, limited places available. See link below.

Admission: free, including lunch

Please registrate via:

<http://urbanstudies.uva.nl/events/item/mercenary-masculinities-imagine-security-identity-work-as-material-practice.html>